Camosun College has two campuses, Lansdowne and Interurban, that serve approximately 19,000 learners a year. Camosun College is large enough to provide great services and facilities for a vibrant campus environment on beautiful Vancouver Island, yet small enough to offer students the individual support, care, and attention not found in most post-secondary institutions.

Camosun education offerings include university transfer and applied degree programs, career and trades training, upgrading and preparatory programs, and continuing education. Camosun College has earned an outstanding reputation for teaching excellence. They're proud of the faculty, staff, and students, and the fact that they provide one of Canada's best learning experiences.

Why Camosun College? Each year Camosun welcomes over 1,200 Indigenous students from First Nations, Métis, and Inuit groups, and over 2,100 international students from more than 80 countries.

Camosun's impact as a college extends well beyond their highly skilled, job-ready graduates. They provide contract training opportunities for local businesses; research, innovation, and prototyping services for industry; and well-trained co-op students for employers. 92% of grads are either employed or pursuing further studies.
