

LAUNCH YOUR FUTURE

DREW

READY. SET. LAUNCH.

Our Launch undergraduate experience ensures that every student graduates with a purpose, sought-after transferable skills, a network of mentors and an experience-based résumé. Guaranteed.

EVERY STUDENT GRADUATES:

Experienced.

Notch at least two immersive experiences—we're talking résumé standouts like internships, research and more. They're required for graduation and documented in transcripts. You leave Drew with the meaningful experience preferred by 94% of employers.

Skilled.

Build a set of transferable workplace skills that are adaptable across life and career. They're taught in classrooms and applied in immersive experiences. You leave Drew with a set of the flexible competencies most sought by today's employers:

- Critical thinking
- Problem solving
- Ethical thinking
- Creative thinking
- Digital proficiency
- Interpretation
- Interpersonal communication
- Oral communication
- Quantitative reasoning
- Collaboration
- Written communication
- Engaging differences

Networked.

Develop a network of mentors to guide and support you. They're a multilayered team of faculty, alums, counselors and other experts cultivated by you (with assistance from us). You leave Drew with your own personal network—for a world where 85% of jobs are filled through networking.

THAT'S OUR GUARANTEE.

FOUR YEARS, FULL IGNITION

Continual career development, with targeted opportunities each year:

- First Year: Onboard for Launch in the required course, Drew 110
- Sophomore: Prototype your Launch Plan in a retreat with peers and mentors
- Junior: Evaluate and refine your progress in a required seminar
- Senior: Prep for your post-Drew path with panels, events and workshops

Ready?

Map your mission.
Launch helps you find your way.

- Take Drew 110
- Clarify your interests
- Assess your goals
- Find your purpose
- Log on to Launchpad
- Meet your mentors
- Start your network

Set.

Chart your course.
Launch steers you in the right direction.

- Learn (and apply) transferable skills
- Connect with career- and affinity-based mentor communities
- Expand your networks
- Pursue immersive experiences
- Refine and expand your Launch Plan

Launch!

Start your journey.
Launch puts you on a trajectory of success.

- Complete at least two immersive experiences
- Master a set of transferable skills
- Take your network with you
- Finalize your Launch Plan for career or grad school
- Graduate ready to launch

LAUNCH A PLAN FOR SUCCESS

Central to Launch is the requirement that each student develop a plan—a Launch Plan—to align the undergraduate experience with life and career readiness. Launch is your ticket to linking your purpose to a pathway and a powerful community of mentors.

SUREFIRE SUCCESS

Great outcomes prove it: Drew graduates are ready to launch. They demonstrate the skills-based experience employers and grad schools seek. They build networks that connect them to opportunity. And they have a Launch Plan that pulls it all together.

One of 50 “Colleges That Create Futures”

The Princeton Review twice saluted Drew as one of the best at helping students transition from college into their dream careers.

Top Third

Drew alum salaries 10 years after graduating are in the top third nationwide, according to the U.S. Department of Education College Scorecard.

Our recent alums are employed by organizations like:

RÉSUMÉ-READY EXPERIENCES

All Drew students graduate with at least two immersive experiences—guaranteed. What's an immersive experiences? Internships, sure, but Drew expands the definition, embracing the many ways students apply transferable skills and expand their networks in real-world settings, on and off campus.

City Programs

Our multiple city semesters immerse you and your classmates in the daily rhythms of major world centers and connect you with leaders, experts and influencers in your chosen field.

London

Live in London while studying British politics and the arts.

New York

Classes in New York City are taught by our faculty experts and industry leaders.

▲ Communications & Media

Get to know this industry by meeting and working with pros at PR firms, news companies, and digital and print publications.

▲ Contemporary Art Discuss business and creativity with gallery owners, museum curators and working artists in their own workspaces.

▲ Museums & Cultural Management Go behind the scenes at MoMA, The Met, the 9/11 Memorial and more to sample the many culture-centric careers.

▲ Social Entrepreneurship

Speak with and work alongside social change organizations that address such issues as inequality, poverty, conflict, the environment and human rights.

▲ Theatre Collaborate with a professional theatre company to produce and perform an original work.

▲ United Nations Have a front-row seat to the realities of international relations and politics.

▲ Wall Street Learn from investment bankers, brokers and economists in the Financial District.

Our study abroad rate is

71%

Traditional study abroad? Of course! But Drew opens opportunities to even more students with ShortTREC courses led by Drew faculty.

Got a few weeks? Take a ShortTREC. Build world-citizen credentials while you:

- ▲ Engineer robots in South Korea
- ▲ Analyze markets in Switzerland
- ▲ Tally marine life in Belize
- ▲ And more!

The Semester on New York Theatre partners students with major professional companies to create original works that premiere in New York City.

RÉSUMÉ-READY EXPERIENCES

Our region has one of the largest concentrations of corporate headquarters in the nation, with such companies as:

American Express
AT&T
Bed Bath and Beyond
Citigroup
Colgate-Palmolive
Condé Nast
Estée Lauder
Goldman Sachs
Major League Baseball
Marvel Entertainment
Pfizer
Ralph Lauren
Tapestry
Tiffany & Co.
Warner Music

Workplace Immersions

Get to work! Nothing prepares you better for career success than applying your transferable skills and making meaningful connections in the fields that interest you most. Drew offers thousands of opportunities—on and off campus—to gain real-world experience.

On-Campus Jobs

Apply your skills. Build your résumé. Expand your network. And earn a paycheck. Working on campus is an all-around win.

Student Leadership

Running a club or managing a major event requires you to put transferable workplace skills into practice. That's why student leadership can count as an immersive experience. Take inspiration from these recent student endeavors:

- ▲ Serve as editor-in-chief of Drew Review
- ▲ Manage a science fair for middle schoolers
- ▲ Found a new student organization
- ▲ Apply for (and receive!) a patent
- ▲ Create a campus art and meditation garden
- ▲ Find and authenticate a Rodin sculpture

Internships

Recent internships (just a few!):

- ▲ BBC Worldwide
- ▲ Crum & Forster
- ▲ Guggenheim Museum
- ▲ HGTV Magazine
- ▲ Marvel Entertainment
- ▲ Mount Sinai Health System
- ▲ Museum of Jewish Heritage
- ▲ Museum of Reclaimed Urban Space
- ▲ New York Women in Film and Television
- ▲ New York Yankees
- ▲ Orange County (CA) Social Services
- ▲ Ukrainian Mission to the United Nations
- ▲ U.S. Senator's (DC) Office hours (at least) of community-based immersive experience as a Drew Action Scholar, our program for advancing real-world solutions through direct action in three areas—civic, global and innovative.

Civic Scholar Antoine Izaguirre '21 with preschoolers at Neighborhood House.

Thomas Potts '20 in Professor Brianne Barker's Drew Summer Science Institute lab.

RISE

Work with star researchers—including a Nobel Prize winner and scientists with as many as 200 patents to their credit—through Drew's Research Institute for Scientists Emeriti (RISE). Students are mentored in research projects with real potential to move science forward, under the guidance of retired industry scientists.

Summer Institutes

Spend your summer pursuing research with faculty mentors. The experience mirrors graduate study, complete with stipends and on-campus housing. Some recent projects:

- ▲ Drew Summer Science Institute: cancer cell production, HIV treatment, diabetes control, eco-friendly plastics
- ▲ Digital Humanities Summer Institute: mapping ancient Roman temples, retracing Shakespeare's London

Stephanie Wang '20 works on a C. elegans model of autism spectrum disorder.

Baldwin Honors

Join our highest-achieving students in conducting original research leading to a senior thesis, an immersive experience that prepares you for graduate study and law and medical school. Baldwin Honors students earn such national recognition as Goldwater, Fulbright and other prestigious scholarships.

NETWORK OF MENTORS

One mentor is marvelous. But a coordinated, multilayered network of mentors is true Drew. Launch integrates guidance across a network of academic, career and personal advisors selected by the student and facilitated by a Launch counselor.

Guided to a Goldwater: Mason Scher counts among her network of mentors chemistry professors Ryan Hinrichs (pictured) and Mary-Ann Pearsall, along with RISE advisor John Eickmeyer, among others. Now she's pursuing a PhD at Princeton.

Build Your Custom Network

Being taken under the wing of a brilliant Drew professor? Super start. Curating a one-of-a-kind mentorship team through Launch? Surefire success. What Launch does differently is integrate guidance across a network of academic, career and personal advisors, with a Launch advisor facilitating each student's network.

Connections

Faculty mentoring starts on the first day students arrive on campus and expands across four years.

Staff counseling helps students make the most of their Drew opportunity, from internships to on-campus jobs, from global education to civic engagement.

Alum mentoring connects students with the personal insights and professional networks of Drew alums who volunteer their time as student advisors.

Raymond Saá Stein is one of two Drew art professors to earn a 2019 Individual Artist Fellowship from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

LIFE IN THE FOREST

Launch your life in a powerful community. Drew is a vibrant, diverse, friendly, personal and generous place. Here in The Forest, students are empowered to find their best selves in a wealth of campus activity and a world of wider opportunity.

Drew's hometown of Madison is #1 in the 2019 New Jersey Monthly Top Towns survey and is ranked among the safest cities in America.

90%

of our students live on campus. Housing is guaranteed all four years.

Your New Home

Our campus, called The Forest, is a 10-minute walk to the Madison train station, which takes you directly to Midtown Manhattan in under an hour. That means you get to experience all the excitement and opportunity of New York City without living in the middle of it 24/7 (yet).

Our hometown, Madison, is postcard-perfect with trendy shops and cafés. New Jersey Monthly agrees: Madison is the #1 Top Town in its 2019 survey. Our neighbor, Morristown, is a fun (and funky) small city with Food Network–famous eateries, art galleries and studios, museums and a music scene.

Career readiness? It comes with the curriculum.

LAUNCH is our structured, four-year framework to sync life and career readiness across the entire Drew undergraduate experience. Personal networks, transferable skills and relevant experiences are just as essential to college as they are to careers. So why not build them into the curriculum?

Drew does just that with Launch, our guarantee that every student graduates on a purpose-driven, experience-based, community-guided path to success. And, because Launch and its components are required for all Drew undergraduates, its benefits are universal. Every student. Every major. Guaranteed.

You graduate ready to launch.
