HANZE CAMPUS

Hanze University of Applied Sciences, Groningen

Hanze is located in the student city of Groningen, offering practical and career-focused degrees to prepare you for today's global employment market.

Practical and career-focused

Lecturers at Hanze are industry experts so you can be inspired by their experience and learn from real-life examples. Courses include a mixture of academic teaching, practical assignments and work placements. Your assignments will reflect real-life scenarios and teach you how to conduct your time. All this will support you to develop the skills you need for your future career, from excellent teamwork to confident communication.

Guaranteed work placements

Being able to put theoretical knowledge into practice is what makes Hanze graduates highly attractive to employers. Work placements are guaranteed with your degree, giving you the opportunity to spend one semester with a company in Holland or abroad. These can even be paid internships and many students go on to get a job offer with their placement company after they graduate.

Not only do work placements develop the skills you need for success in the real world. They also help you understand more about the area of business you want to work in. Previous students have worked with companies such as Volkswagen, Adidas and SEAT.

Lively student city

Groningen is a thriving student city in the north of Holland where about 25% of the population is students. This also means it is Holland's most youthful city, so you will be part of a community of likeminded people living and learning here. Around 61% of all journeys are made by bicycle in Groningen and it is easy to see why. The city centre is safe and easy to travel around thanks to no cars and a large network of cycle lanes. It is also a fantastic city to enjoy historic architecture, shopping and diverse culture such as galleries, museums, and music.

I did my placement in Groningen for an online sports retailer. This was a good opportunity for me to gain practical experience. We have studied in Hanze and learnt a lot of theory, so this was a good chance to apply it in real cases.

Study for one year in Amsterdam alongside students preparing for a wide range of English-taught degrees at top universities in Holland.

One year in Amsterdam

At our dedicated centre in Amsterdam, supportive teachers will help you reach the grades you need to get on to your chosen undergraduate degree at a university in Holland.

At the International Study Centre, you will:

- develop your academic and English language skills
- gain an introduction to your chosen subject
- get to know Dutch culture and teaching methods before you start your degree
- learn how to research and write university essays
- practise presenting and join in group discussions
- feel supported by your personal tutor and peers
- join in social events organised by the student committee
- develop employability skills by writing and working through a personal development plan.

International Foundation Year

The International Foundation Year is a three-term programme that prepares students for entering the first year of an undergraduate degree in Holland.

For progression to selected degrees at Hanze University of Applied Sciences, you can choose from two pathways:

- Business, Economics and Social Sciences
- Science, Engineering and Computing

Your chosen pathway will introduce you to core and subject-specific modules related to your chosen progression degree. You will be assessed through a mix of presentations, extended essays and end-of-module assessments.

Degree progression from the Business, Economics and Social Sciences pathway

BBA International Business

Taught at the International Business School, this degree programme will introduce you to key areas of business, including marketing, finance, accounting, business law and supply chain management. This practical programme includes international work placements, real-life research projects and the opportunity to spend a semester at one of Hanze UAS' university partners. Previous placements have been at companies like Microsoft, SEAT, Bosch, PwC in Holland and abroad.

BA Sports Studies

Sport is an important part of a healthy lifestyle; it creates business value; it has the social power to change communities. These are the values at the heart of this programme. Second year students develop a strategic programme for a European city based on practical research, before spending a semester completing an internship. The graduation project in year three involves working with a professional organisation to develop and implement change.

Degree progression from the Science, Engineering and Computing pathway

BSc Mechanical Engineering

This three-year bachelor of science programme provides a mixture of theoretical classes, practical labs, internships and a graduation project at a company. With a focus on maths and energy, you will study core subjects such as: product analysis, energy technology, manufacturing technology, mathematics, mechanical design and engineering, materials and professional skills. You also have the opportunity to choose a minor in your final year, such as Flexible Energy Technology. Many graduates go on to careers in technical engineering or choose to pursue a masters, such as the European Master in Renewable Energy.

Why study in Holland?

Top-ranked universities, degrees taught in English and a visa that enables you to apply for jobs after you graduate make Holland a perfect study destination.

95%

OF DUTCH PEOPLE SPEAK ENGLISH

100,000

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ARE TAUGHT IN HOLLAND EVERY YEAR

World-class universities

Many international students choose Holland for its range of globally-respected degrees taught in English. Universities here are known for their academic quality, interactive learning, and respect for sharing ideas. That is why you will consistently see a high number of Dutch universities listed in the world top 200 rankings.

Exciting graduate careers

Knowledge and talent is valued in Holland, so after you graduate you can take advantage of a one-year post-graduate visa while you look for employment. You also have the option to find part-time work during your studies. With fast-growing industries and large Dutch multinationals such as Philips, Shell, KLM, ING Bank and Unilever, Holland offers exciting career prospects. That's why 25% of international graduates remain in Holland after five years (Nuffic survey, 2018).

European travel

You will have the advantage of studying in English in the heart of a European city. Your visa will cover the full duration of your studies in Holland and also allows travel throughout the Schengen area of Europe. Bustling cities like Paris and Berlin are each just a three-hour train journey or a one-hour flight from Amsterdam, giving you exciting travel opportunities on your doorstep.

Multicultural and open-minded

With 100,000 students choosing Holland as a study destination every year, you will be part of a vibrant community of students from all around the world. Dutch people are welcoming and accepting of new ideas, so it is easy to talk to them and share your culture.

I really like the Dutch culture. For me it is very safe, open, tolerant and also very lovely and friendly. Also, it is important that there is more reasonable tuition for the students.”

Affordable fees

University tuition fees in Holland are significantly lower compared to the UK, Australia or the USA. For example, a similar three-year degree can cost around €20,000 more in the UK and €40,000 more in the USA or Australia.

*The cost for four-year study includes a foundation course.

Amsterdam life

Holland International Study Centre is located in the heart of Amsterdam. Living in the Dutch capital, you will find an open-minded city with one of the largest student populations in the country.

Welcoming and safe

Amsterdam is a welcoming city home to more than 180 nationalities. Despite being the country's largest city with around 800,000 inhabitants, it keeps a small town feel with cobbled streets and neighbourhoods that are easy and safe to explore. There is also a large student population thanks to the city's three universities, so it is an exciting place to live and learn.

English-speaking

Although their first language is Dutch, around 95% of people in Holland also speak English. Amsterdam itself is one of the most international cities in Holland. Friendly locals can help you if you get lost and you will easily find menus, signs and restaurants in English. This gives you plenty of opportunity to practise the language while you study here.

Exciting start-up scene

Amsterdam is an attractive destination for companies with its diverse talent pool, international population and excellent transport links. As a result the city has a growing start-up scene. It's the 4th city in Europe to become a top tech innovation hub outside Silicon Valley (KPMG, 2019), and every year it hosts The Next Web tech conference. There is also a growing financial district, Zuidas, which is home to 800 Dutch and international companies including ABN AMRO and EY.

Historic and picturesque

For a relatively small city centre, just over 219km², Amsterdam is packed with things to see and do. Picturesque canals, historic buildings dating back to the fourteenth century, world-class museums and art exhibitions are all perfect to explore on foot or by bicycle. The city also holds many music festivals and sporting events throughout the year so there is always something to do.

Well-connected in Europe

Amsterdam is a well-connected city and public transport and dedicated cycle routes make it easy and safe to get around. If you want to explore other European cities, Brussels, Antwerp and Paris can be reached in just a few hours by train. For international travel, Amsterdam Airport Schiphol is a major European hub, flying to destinations across Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Africa and America.

Disclaimer

This prospectus is issued for the general guidance of students considering entry to Holland International Study Centre from September 2020. The information is correct at the time of going to press and the programmes and services described herein are those which Study Group is planning to offer.

We make every effort to ensure that the content of our prospectus, website and other materials is accurate. However, on occasion it may be necessary to alter certain aspects of a module or programme, for example if changes are required to meet external requirements; or if programmes are over-subscribed and the quality of teaching would be adversely affected as a result.

In such circumstances, we may have to alter the timetable, change the teaching location of the programme or, in extreme cases, cancel or substantially amend the content of the programme. Should any of these changes become necessary, we will give you as much notice as possible before they come into effect and ensure that any disruption to your studies is minimised. If your programme is cancelled, we will work in consultation with you to offer a suitable alternative, subject to meeting the admission requirements for that programme or the opportunity to obtain a refund of any advance payments you have made for the programme.

The alternative programme may not be at the same International Study Centre as the original offer. Study Group reserves the right, where applicable, to amend the regulations governing programmes at Holland International Study Centre. We therefore strongly recommend that immediately prior to making any application to – or accepting any offer from – us, you refer to the most up-to-date version of the programme descriptions and specifications and the regulations on the Holland International Study Centre website.
